After breakfast today, the time is free to relax and enjoy the hotel facilities or take some time to explore the city. In the afternoon we include a private sunset tour to Cape Sounio. You will leave Athens for a wonderful drive along the scenic coastal road which affords a splendid view of the Saronic Gulf passing through some of Athens' most beautiful suburbs (Glyfada, Vouliagmeni, Varzika) to Cape Sounio where you will visit the 5th century B.C. temple of Poseidon with one of the most breath-taking panoramic views in the world and on a clear day you can see at least seven islands. The Doric columns of local marble have 16 flutings instead of the usual 20. The precipice is a sheer 197-foot drop to the sea. Return to Athens after the tour for an evening at your leisure.

Santorini is one of the Cyclades islands in the Aegean Sea. It was devastated by a volcanic eruption in the 16th century BC, forever shaping its rugged landscape. They overlook the sea, small islands to the west and beaches made up of black, red and white lava pebbles.
